Simmons, Broderick, and Davis, Johnson, of leunesses, occupied the whole day explaining why be would vote against the bill, lich be considered neither a necessary set midth be considered neither a necessary act, ander war making power, nor a test of Democracy. he discussion of Mr. Sideli's Cuban report war med for Monday. Adjourned. mee.—Mr. Wood, from the Postoffice Committiou. It was the most meritorious appropriation it entire bill.

Mr. Curry objected to the President's making a contract to support and educate the regroes of the Echo. It the could make a contract for one ya, he could make a contract for one ya, he could make a contract for itie. The anged a rigid atheretice to the Constitution, and was not able to discriminate between fairs and strauded constructions of low by a high executive officer and by a band of usen.

Mr. Nichols replied, defending the appropriation in the believed overything its President had done in the matter was dictated by a tagh e = of the requirements of humanity. The committee rose.
